

Sandy Morckel
President
Change Agent for Inspired Philanthropy

---

Professional Summary

---

Sandy Morckel

An accomplished fundraising veteran, community advocate and change agent, Sandy Morckel has assisted not-for-profit organizations and public/private partnerships in raising over $55 million in philanthropic support across the country for a wide variety of causes. Beginning in 1987, Sandy has held leadership positions for respected regional and national not-for-profit organizations spanning from the Midwest to the Southeast, including March of Dimes, Arthritis Foundation, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation and Historic Charleston Foundation, where she served as Director of Philanthropy.

Sandy launched Solutions for the Greater Good in 2014, a consulting firm targeting nonprofit organizations and public/private partnerships to crystallize bold goals and vision and bring them to fruition. She consults nonprofit organizations and community-led initiatives in identifying, approaching, engaging and inspiring individuals, corporations, foundations and government in capital and comprehensive campaigns using peer-to-peer models.

Sandy has been a life-long model for civic engagement. A member of the Association of Fundraising Professionals (AFP) since 1991, Sandy is Past President of the AFP Central Ohio Chapter, and currently a member of the AFP Lowcountry Chapter. A Rotarian since 1993, Sandy is Past President of the Rotary Club of Dublin AM and served as President of the Historic Rotary Club of Charleston during their 100th anniversary year in 2019/2020. She is as a founding member of the TEDxCharleston Steering Committee, board member of Save More Kids in Liberia, special advisor to The Sophia Institute and a founding member of the Leadership Team for Social Justice Racial Equity Collaborative (SJREC) and will dedicate the remainder of her life to the issues of race relations and economic parity. She was recognized as a Business First "Forty Under 40" Honoree in Columbus, Ohio in 1999 in recognition for her charitable and civic involvement and professional achievements. In 2020, she was selected as one of four finalists in the Remarkable Women series launched by News2 WCBT in Charleston and the Nexstar Network nationally. In 2021, she was selected by Brazilian artist Fer Caggiano as one of 40 women to be profiled and featured in the LIKE A GIRL: DARE TO DREAM exhibit in the City Gallery and the resulting coffee table book. Sandy is married to Craig Gangloff and lives in Mt. Pleasant, SC.

Contact Info:

Sandy Morckel | President and Change Agent for Inspired Philanthropy | Solutions for the Greater Good
614.306.8856 | smorckel@gmail.com

Social Media:

LinkedIn: @Sandy Morckel • @Solutions for the Greater Good
Facebook: @Sandy Morckel • @Solutions for the Greater Good
Instagram: @SandyMorckel

www.solutionsforgreatergood.com